A short time ago, the "Farm and Tractor" section of a Los Angeles, Cal., Sunday Times, had an article, describing the wonderful achievement and success of Mr. L. M. Benedict, who is well known here. He and his son Clinton, aged 24, are deaf, and have one of the most progressive poultry plants in Central California with some 4,000 hens. They expect to increase this to about 25,000 next fall. The article has several illustrations of an incubator cellar containing a capacity of 3,000 eggs, a chick house, and runs with a capacity of 800, an irrigation plant and alfalfa field, near Porterville, and a double brooder house, which can comfortably hold some 4,000 chicks. One illustration shows the arrangement of the brooder house units which is remarkable. This plant is located on a tract of 40 acres of fine alfalfa land, giving ample room for each of the colonies. The success of such a place is due to the system and careful culling. Mr. Benedict's last visit to Omaha and Council Bluffs was about four or five years ago.

One of the largest and jolliest dancing parties of the season was the Leap Year Dance and Social given by the ladies of Council Bluffs and Omaha, Saturday evening, March 20, at a hall in the Lyric Building. It proved a brilliant success in every way. The elders went back 20 years and the younger set made their seniors as happy and young as themselves. The pupils of the Junior and Senior classes of the Nebraska School helped to swell the attendance. Almost every man came at the expense of his lady fair, who at the close saw that he was put aboard his car, homeward bound. The grand march started with "Love's Young Dream," while those who did not care to dance were already seated at tables for cards. Eight tables were arranged. The men had an easy time letting the fair sex select the dance number, and these "flowers of the dance floor" had a hilarious time grabbing any man they wanted to, when in other days they could not ask any one. Some avenged themselves for those times and put one partner down for several dances. We heard a certain lassie remark: "This is Leap Year, I can ask whoever I choose," and another of the fair sex "yelled" in glee, "Leap Year is a grand and glorious year."

There were some one hundred thirty there. Each lady teacher of the Nebraska School brought along her own pupil as male partner. The big treat of the evening was ice-cream sundae and wafers, at the Olympia parlors, whence the crowd went in two groups, one at 10:15 P.M. and the other at 11:30 P.M. Most of those going first hurried back to partake of the rest of the dance numbers. The boys had a wonderful time and are looking forward to another such event soon. Come on, girls, have another. Geel! what fun! Prizes at cards were won by Mrs. F. C. Holloway and Mr. C. E. Comp as firsts, and Mrs. Robert Mullin and Mr. Z. B. Thompson seconds. Superintendent and Mrs. F. W. Booth were there to help make things lively. A young man was asked why he did not attend the Leap Year party; he said he was afraid of being considered bold if he had gone without a lady escort. He was in earnest too. Another young man did not want to pay admission, saying he expected some lady to do it. He was Johnny-on-the-spot when a young lady came inquiring if there was any young man who had not been asked. Wonder what the boys would have thought of a lady if she had done as this man did.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rothert made a flying trip (not via airship) to Carthage, Mo., the 23d and were back the 25th. Before leaving, Mr. Rothert sent a telegram to a relative announcing their coming. He addressed it to Mrs. W. H. Rothert at Carthage, Mo., and was puzzled when an answer came saying, Mrs. Rothert was not in town. Then he saw his mistake and sent one to the right party. Wasn't it a good joke on a devoted hubby?

Mr. Eugene Fry left for Chicago, Ill., March 24th, to take advanced studies at the Advertising Art Institute and the Art School, learning specialties in advertisement and poster drawings. He is already past the amateur mark and has shown marked ability and originality while in Omaha in the employ of Baker Bros. Engraving Co. He starts to school the 29th of March and will continue till the 19th of June. We wish him success in his chosen work.

An entertainment was given at the auditorium of the Nebraska School, Friday evening, March 26th, by the Philomathean Literary Society. There were scenes from Rip Van Winkle in tableaux, which was very interesting, and the Victory Drill representing the Allies and the Central Powers was well rendered. Miss Helen Hurt, who was to exhibit fancy dancing, was unable to be present.

We regret to chronicle the serious illness of the mother of Mrs. A. L. Hurt, and hope for her speedy recovery.

HAL.

THE SUNFLOWER STATE

A child was born in Chanute on Leap Year Day.

A lady who lives near Chanute celebrated her sixteenth birthday on Leap Year Day. How old was she? Ground Hog Day, Lincoln's birthday, St. Valentine Day, Washington's birthday and Leap Year Day occurred in February.

Some time ago, Ralph S. Herman, son of the Superintendent of the Kansas School for the Deaf, and Miss Mary Russell, teacher of that school, were married. They are both graduates of the University of Kansas.

A month ago, the writer's wife was called to New Mexico on account of their son's sickness. The boy was sick, but now is well and is able to work.

Miss L. Winifred Dedrick, a graduate of the Kansas School for the Deaf in 1910, stopped in Chanute on Leap Year Day with her friend, Miss Edna Iman, and her parents, for two days. She had a good position in a press and bindery house in Independence and had to resign her job to go to Lawrence to live with her mother, although she had secured a lucrative position there. Her former foreman gave her a very nicely written recommendation. Miss Dedrick used to live in Chanute with her cousins, now of Independence. Her cousin, Mrs. Smith (nee Miss Smith), was at one time nurse in the Kansas School for the Deaf. Miss Dedrick's aunt, Miss Mary Smith, now deceased, was a pupil of the Kansas School. She took care of Winifred when she was a baby. Many friends of hers are glad to hear of her success.

Miss Edna Iman, of Chanute, came home last week from Olathe, where she visited with her friends for a few days. While in Olathe she enjoyed herself.

Saturday night, February 28th, S. Thomas Booth, of Garnett, came to Chanute to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hummer. The writer was invited to dine with them. In the afternoon, Misses Winifred Dedrick and Edna Quinn called. Mr. Hummer was Mr. Booth's old teacher, while in the Iowa School for the Deaf. Last fall he came back to Kansas after twenty months' stay with a married sister in Bakersfield, Cal., because he did not feel very well. Before he came home, he went to Santa Cruz to spend about two weeks, and his health was excellent. He went to Bakersfield again, but decided to come back to his old home in Garnett, where he has lived for the past forty years. Two years ago, after his wife died, her sister from California came after him and took him home to live with her. He said he would rather live on the Pacific coast than in Bakersfield. He is employed in the Church and Furniture Factory in Garnett. He can easily secure a job because every body knows him. He is sixty-three years old and is hale.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schoonover and child were sick with flu in Garnett for over three weeks. Mr. Booth went to see how they were, and helped them regularly. The writer has not learned how they were.

Robert McFarland, from Oklahoma, visited Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gibson, of Altoona, for a week.

He left for Wichita, where he expected a job.

Some time ago Mrs. Frank Herzig (nee Miss Olive Haworth), passed away at her home in Los Angeles, California. She was educated in the Kansas and California Schools for the Deaf, and was married to Frank Herzig, graduate of the Kansas School, in 1910. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isom Haworth (nee Miss Irene Martin), of Los Angeles. Mr. Herzig has our sympathy.

Saturday night, February 21st, there was a masquerade party given in Wichita. It was a grand success, about sixty-five deaf-mutes being present.

Before Miss Winifred Dedrick came to Chanute, she attended the masquerade party in Wichita, February 21st.

March 11th, twenty-six years ago, the writer and his wife were married in the Oklahoma Territory.

March 16, 1920.

STAR.

Some time ago, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Wait and children, of Sawyer, went to Wakita, Oklahoma, in their Dord motor car, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hendricks and friends for a few days. Then they drove to Wichita to spend a few days visiting with the family of William E. Wait. Mr. Wait's brother, Arthur, owns more than 160 acres of land. He is a well-to-do farmer.

We have not learned how Mrs. Kate S. Herman, Superintendent of the Kansas School for the Deaf, is at present.

Charles Deshazer is back in Wichita, where he has a good job in the Monarch Furniture Factory. He was in South Dakota husking corn for a farmer for several weeks.

Frank Luttrell, of Wichita, is working in the job composing department in the Inland Printing Company, where he has been for the past two years. He is a first-class printer. He is sixty-two years old, and is hale. Mrs. Luttrell (nee Miss Osborne), formerly a pupil of the Kansas School for the Deaf, often gives the deaf adult sermons and hymns in the Baptist Church on Sundays. They have a daughter, aged about fifteen years. Last summer the girl visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Champion Buchanan (nee Miss Luttrell), a former teacher in the Illinois School for the Deaf, in Chicago.

Sunday, March 14th, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hummer and son, Joe, and the writer, drove in Mr. Hummer's Chevrolet motor car to Altoona, where they spent a day visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gibson and children. They ate a big dinner. Mrs. Gibson is a first-class cook. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson own a 160-acre farm, a 5 passenger Maxwell motor car, and a Wallis tractor. Mr. Gibson built a very large barn that can hold thirty tons of hay. He also built a very fine cave in cement concrete, a garage, and a granary and implement building. He has everything on hand that is useful to him. Wilson County appointed him to drag the main road on which autos run near his farm. He uses his tractor on the road and gets good pay from the County. Mrs. Gibson was Miss Anna Rettman.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson were educated in the Kansas School for the Deaf, where Mrs. Gibson and the writer were tablemates when she was a girl. Mr. Gibson and the writer's wife were tablemates, too. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson have two sons, twelve and nine years old, who can hear.

Stanley Dibble, who at one time was assistant foreman of the deaf department in the Monarch Furniture factory, Wichita, accepted a better position in a leading furniture factory in Topeka, but returned to Wichita and secured a job in the Phillippe-Wagner Furniture Factory. Messrs. Charles Bell and Archie Grier works with him. They were formerly employed in the Monarch Furniture factory.

There are seventeen deaf mutes working in the Monarch Furniture factory, Wichita. They are Dalton Fuller, foreman of the deaf department, William E. Wait, Assistant foreman, Frank Martin, Mr. Wainwright, Henry Dohrmann, Mr. Claus, Gus Reed, Mrs. Gus Reed, Earl Jackson, Amos Meyers, Charles Deshazer, Joseph Kaufman, Mr. Peter, George Harms, Mr. Hite, Ed. Pugh and Harry Sleeper. The Superintendent expects to have more at the factory as soon as they get room and plenty of lumber. Lumber is coming very slowly. The railroad services are very poor. We understand that the factory will build a large building there and will have more deaf-mutes in the near future.

Hon. E. T. Hackney, fair-price Commissioner of Kansas, who was at one time president of the State Board of Educational Administration, is urged to be a Democratic candidate for the office of a United States Senator to succeed Senator Charles Curtis.

Vernon L. Butterbaugh is a chemist in the LeHigh Portland Cement factory in Iowa. He is a graduate of the Nebraska School for the Deaf, and of Gallaudet College. Mrs. Butterbaugh was Miss Ella Cowen, who taught in the Louisiana School for the Deaf before their marriage. She went educated in the Illinois, Nebraska and Colorado Schools. She went back to the middle school, and was graduated. She entered Gallaudet College, and remained there two or three years, but was appointed teacher in the Louisiana School.

Yes, Mr. Robert P. McGregor, of Ohio, was introduced as the father of the National Association of the Deaf. Mac was the first President of that Association that first met in Cincinnati, O., in 1880. George Washington was the first President of the United States, and was known as "first in war, first in peace, and in the hearts of his countrymen," because the people had loved to call him the father of his country. We call Mac "first in manual, first in peace and first in the hearts of his deaf fellow-men," because the deaf had loved to call him the father of his association.

Wisconsin Institution.

F. J. Neesan goes into Chicago Friday evening to purchase baseball supplies.

Prof. and Mrs. F. J. Neesan entertained a few friends at cards Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boss.

Joe Brandt is again back on his old job at Richmond, Ind., as linotype operator.

One of the pupils here has received from Ernest Langensberg at Gallaudet quite a number of interesting kodak views of places in Washington, D. C.

The admissions of new pupils for March alone are Harry Byrne, Delavan; Arthur Johnson, Florence; Walter Mundt, Milwaukee, and Michael Grubb, Endeavor.

As the March teachers' meeting Miss Evelyn Elger had a very instructive paper on "Athletics for Girls," which showed a careful study of the real needs of the deaf in this matter and in what lines development was required. She proved that there was plenty of room for one instructor to devote her whole time to this work.

Chas. Boss, who came here last spring to build the Hagerty flats and who has been night watchman the past winter, quits his job April 1st. About the middle of next month he leaves for Miami, Florida, to better his future in his chosen specialty that of carpentry. His family will remain here for the present, probably following him in June. While he will be missed in the deaf circles here, the best wishes of his friends go with him wherever he may be.

In a hotly contested bowling game between the deaf of Kenosha and Madison at the latter place, the Kenosha team made 2330 points against their opponents' 2120.

The entertainment in ledger-main given Saturday evening at the school by Nela Olson, of Chicago, exceeded all expectations in thrilling interest, which was kept at the highest tension from beginning to end. Indeed, for quite a part of the time the audience was on its feet.

Even though a woman believes she is worth her weight in gold, she would hate to get too stout.

He's true to God who's true to man;
Wherever wrong is done
To the humblest and the weakest
"Neath the all-beholding sun,
That wrong is also done to us,
And they are slaves most base,
Whose love of right is for themselves,
And not for all the race."

Specimen copies sent to any address on receipt of five cents.

Notices concerning the whereabouts of individuals will be charged for at the rate of ten cents a line.

ONCE AGAIN the New York Institution is deprived of an influential friend. Mr. Eugene Delano, a member of the Board of Directors for twenty-one years, died on Friday morning, April 2d, in the 77th year of his age. His death occurred at his residence, 12 Washington Square, New York City.

Mr. Delano was always interested and active in promoting the educational work of the New York Institution (Fanwood). For fifteen years, from 1901 to 1916, he was a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors—a committee which involves continuous periodical duties that are onerous, exacting and important, and he rendered this self-sacrificing service with scrupulous care and generous attention. At the time of his death and for many years preceding it, he was senior member of Brown Bros. & Co., bankers, at 59 Wall Street, and one of New York's leading financiers, yet he found time to visit the Institution at stated periods and was invariably present at the several annual events that are regarded as important occasions at the school. He was of a friendly disposition, gentle and unobtrusive, and he greeted the official personnel, as well as the pupils with a kindly hand-clasp and a pleasant smile.

Eugene Delano was born at Utica, N. Y., and educated at Williams College, graduating with the class of 1866. Later he received an A.M. from his alma mater. During the early part of his business career he was a merchant, and by 1880 had fairly established himself when he joined the forces of the Philadelphia house of merchant bankers, Brown Bros. & Co. In January, 1894, he was made a partner resident in Philadelphia. A year later he moved to the branch of the firm in New York, where his brother-in-law, John Crosby Brown, was then senior member.

Mr. Delano was always an active support to Williams College, serving on the Board of Trustees for twenty-five years, and taking part in the carrying out of the policies tending to the growth of the college. Another interest that deeply concerned him was the work of Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell among the inhabitants of Labrador. As Treasurer of the Grenfell Association of America he helped supply the funds for this humanitarian cause.

The wide range of Mr. Delano's civic interests is shown by the appearance of his name on the Boards of Trustees of the following institutions: The New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, the Presbyterian Hospital, New York Orthopedic Dispensary and Hospital, New York City Mission, and New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb.

He was President of the Musical Arts Society and Treasurer of the American Waldensian Aid Society. The only financial connections he retained at the time of his death, aside from his own firm, were the Vice-Presidency of the Seamen's Bank for Savings and his Trusteeship of the New York Life Insurance and Trust Company.

Among his clubs in this city were the Century, Down Town, University, City Midway and Automobile Club of America. He was also a member of Jekyll Island Club, Essex County Country, and the Radnor Hunt, Merion Cricket and Philadelphia Clubs of Philadelphia. He left two sons, Moreau Delano, who lived with his father and was a member of the firm, and William Adams Delano of 131 East Thirty-sixth Street, and two daughters, Mrs. Augustus B. Wadsworth, of Albany, and Mrs. Charles W. McKelvey, also living at 12 Washington Square North.

The funeral services were held at the University Place Presbyterian Church, on Monday morning, April 5th. Interment was at Mount Auburn.

INFORMATION REGARDING THE MT. AIRY CONVENTION.

For the guidance of those desiring to attend the Joint Convention of Teachers of the Deaf, which is to be held in the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, at Mt. Airy, June 28th to July 3d next, the following information is given in advance:

1. By order of the Board of Directors, all members of the Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf, of the American Association to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf, of the Society of Progressive Oral Advocates, and honorary members of these bodies will be provided with board and lodging, at the Institution, as far as accommodations will permit, at the rate of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per day, from the afternoon of June 28th to the afternoon of July 3d, inclusive. For lodging, breakfast or supper, the charge will be fifty cents ($0.50) each, for dinner one dollar ($1.00). Tickets may be procured at the office in Wisconsin Hall, for all meals and for lodging, by members wearing the badges of their respective associations. An extra charge of fifty cents ($.50) a day will be made to non-members.

All meals will be served in Cresham Hall, at the following hours: Breakfast, 7:00 to 8:00 o'clock; Dinner, 1:00 to 2:00 o'clock; Supper, 6:00 to 7:00 o'clock; and at no other hours. The first meal served will be on Monday afternoon, June 28th (supper), the last meal served will be at Saturday noon, July 3d (dinner).

2. Owing to the shortage of labor, no laundering will be allowed in the Institution; numerous city laundries will be easily available to those desirous of patronizing them.

3. Members and honorary members of schools, including officers, teachers, principals, superintendents, and members of Boards of Directors, are urged to make their reservations at the Main Office, Wisconsin Hall, at as early a date as possible. Those applying first will be served first. A limited number of double and single rooms will be available.

4. There are a few accessible apartment houses in the vicinity of the Institution, in which a few members, preferring outside entertainment, can be accommodated, and numerous comfortable hotels are within easy reach (a half hour's ride by rail) in the city. All members preferring outside entertainment are urged to communicate with Mr. Clarence J. Settles, care of the Institution, who will gladly assist in securing comfortable quarters, with rates and other information.

5. Among the hotels in the city that may be mentioned are the following: The Bellevue-Stratford, the Ritz-Carlton, the Walton, the Adelphia, the Bingham, the Majestic, the Colonnade, the Stenton, the Vendig, the Windsor and the St. James, all on the European and American Plans.

6. Of apartment houses, the following may be mentioned: The Lincoln, the Bartram, the Colonial, the Gladstone, the Hamilton Court, in the city, and the Delmar-Morris, the Pelham Court, Cresham Arms, and the Golden Swan, in Mt. Airy.

7. Arrangements are being made, by which it is hoped special rates may be granted by the leading Railroads entering the city, to all members attending the Convention. Full information covering this important point will be given later. It may be stated now, however, that all delegates coming over the Pennsylvania Lines, should if possible, buy their tickets and check their baggage to Allen Lane Station, and all coming over the Baltimore and Ohio, the Lehigh Valley, the Jersey Central, and the Philadelphia and Reading Lines, should buy their tickets and check their baggage to Mt. Airy Station. Doing so will save trouble and annoyance in regard to transfers in the city. Baggage sent by express will be delivered by the American Express Company. Allen Lane and Mt. Airy Station are but five minutes walk from the Institution grounds; autos will be in attendance to convey any who may prefer to ride.

8. Persons desiring to come to the Institution from the city by trolley will find no difficulty in doing so, on their arrival. The 7th and 11th Street trolley cars pass directly in front of the Institution grounds, and are convenient to the main stations of the steam roads, especially Broad Street Station of the Pennsylvania, and the 12th and Market Station of the Philadelphia and Reading, and allied lines. On the 7th Street Line, guests will take the cars marked "Mount Airy," on the 11th Street Line take the cars marked "Chestnut Hill" or "City Line No. 23."

9. Members are urged to register and secure badges of their respective associations at the office in Wisconsin Hall, immediately upon their arrival at the Institution.

10. Among nearby places of amusement, may be mentioned numerous city theatres, Willow Grove, Atlantic City, and other New Jersey and Pennsylvania resorts. Mr. Lyman Steed, of the Institution staff, will gladly advise and assist any members desiring to visit these places, to secure accommodations and rates. Auto trips may be arranged for to Valley Forge, the famous Wissahickon Drive, Fairmount Park, and other places of Historic and Civic Interest. Parties desiring to make trips, by steamer, up and down the Delaware, with a view to visit the great ship-yards of Philadelphia and Camden, can arrange to do so at reasonable rates, through Mr. Steed.

11. Mail delivery and collection, by carriers, are made three times daily—at 8:30 in the morning, at 12:30 in the afternoon, and 3:30 in the afternoon. Other deliveries by special messenger will be arranged for if necessary. Telephone and telegraph stations will be found in each hall.

12. An Information Bureau in charge of a Committee of Ladies and conveniently located will be open from 8:00 A.M., to give information regarding entertainments, excursions, auto drives, and mail, and telephone and telegraph service.

13. Mr. Alexander Pach, the well known artist of New York City, will be the Official Photographer of the Convention.

14. It is suggested that that officials of the different bodies represented at the Convention provide badges for their members in advance, sending them to the office for distribution, when members register: Red for the American convention, white for American Society Association, and blue for the Society of Progressive Oral Advocates.

15. Mr. Lyman Steed and Mr. Clarence J. Settles, of the Institution Staff, have very kindly consented to assist in matters of transportation, hotel accommodations, excursions, amusements, etc., and persons desirous of availing themselves of their services, will kindly address them directly, care of the Institution.

BOSTON.

On Thursday March 4th, the Winnisimmet Union of the First Congregational Church in Chelsea served its ninth annual dinner at the "Home."

Guests of the day included Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Quint, Miss Goldsmith and Mr. Alcott of the trustees, and from the Union: Mrs. F. G. Jones, president; Mrs. William Alcott and Mrs. A. B. Atwood, vice-presidents; Mrs. Walter Fraeker, secretary; Mrs. W. S. Walkley, chairman of entertainment department, and Mrs. E. E. Pitts, chairman of the hospitality department. Following dinner came an hour with Prof. William E. Floyd, magician. It was a wonderful hour of mystery and amazement and hilarity, and it was shared by many neighbors, who accepted the invitation to drop in for the afternoon program.

Mrs. George Hull gave a whist party for her hearing friends at her home, on the afternoon of February 14th, and another for her deaf friends in the evening. She received a net profit of $34.

The party held at the Home of February 23d, was attended by over one hundred people. Mrs. Fecteau, who was in charge, cleared a profit of $44.46.

Mrs. Fanny Walker invites members of the L. A. to meet at Trinity Church Parish House, on Wednesday, April 7th. In the evening supper will be served, to which husbands and friends are invited.

Mrs. Soper will give a party at the home on Patriots' Day, Monday, April 19th. Ladies are requested to dress in white and to wear colors in honor of the day. Admission, 15 cents.

The 17th of March was celebrated in South Boston, not only as St. Patrick's Day but also as Evacuation Day, it being the 144th Anniversary of the Evacuation of Boston. There were historical exercises, a short parade, dedication, band concerts, banquet, and in the evening fire-works. About 1200 children of the lower grades in schools were treated to ice-cream and cake, while the larger children received tickets, admitting them to high class vaudeville entertainments, which were held in different halls in South Boston. Fire-works were set off on Dorchester Heights at 7.15 sharp; besides four or five set pieces, there was a wonderful display of aerial bombs, which could be seen from one end of the city to the other.

Among the guests were: Governor Coolidge, Major Peters, Major General Edwards, Colonel Edward L. Logan, Captain Jean B. L. Moutour and the Honorable Edward P. Barry.

A splendid time was had by every one who attended the whist party held at the home of Mrs. Woods, of Dorchester, and which was in charge of Arthur Wood, of Cambridge. Those who were fortunate to receive a prize were Miss Cherry, Mrs. Earle, Mrs. and Mr. Brown, Miss Green and Miss Smith.

Mrs. Earle is a hearing daughter of Mrs. Woods, and has shown such enthusiasm toward the deaf that she had us all take chances on a doll (costing $7.50), which she so generously bought so that the money received would help swell our building fund. Mr. Brown was the lucky winner—won't we envy his little girl when she gets that doll.

Mr. Harry Jordan will hold a whist party at the home of Mr. Clark, of 21 Mellen Street, Dorchester, on April 23d.

Lay-reader S. Albert Tufts died, on March 25th, at the Malden Hospital, after an illness of more than a year. Mr. Tufts was born sixty-three years ago, in the house where he lived all his life, at 56 Summer Street.

Mr. Tufts has been Lay-reader to the deaf of Trinity Church, Boston, for a number of years. He was a graduate of the Hartford School and of Gallaudet College. The funeral was held from his home on Saturday, March 27th, at 2 P.M.

Before a large and enthusiastic audience, on the evening of March 25th, the Perkins Players of the Perkins Institution for the Blind at Watertown, presented Julius Cæsar, in the assembly hall, scoring a decided success.

It was the first performance of the play, and was repeated Friday evening, at 7:45 and Saturday afternoon at 2:45.

The play was given for the benefit of the Howe Memorial Fund and the Smith College Fund. The Howe fund seeks to aid the members of the Club to establish themselves upon leaving school. One-third of the proceeds goes to Smith College.

The Ladies' Auxiliary is to have an all-day meeting in the Parish House, Wednesday, April 7th, with a supper at 5:30.

On Thursday evening, April 22d, the Altar Guild will hold a Social in the Parish House. A cafeteria lunch will be served from 6 to 7 P.M. Amusements of all sorts will be had, and Henry Roberts, our blind friend, will entertain us with a story. Admission, 10 cents.

Bisil op Babcock will visit the Silent Mission on May 30th, at 3 P.M. We expect that the services will be in Trinity Church House.

Charles E. Chester, sexton of Trinity Church for 40 years, died of heart disease on March 29th, at the Hotel Bristol, where he has made his home for years.

Mr. Chester since the death of Mr. Poor, our diocesan treasurer, has taken care of the funds for our church building. Now that good Mr. Chester has gone, we wonder who will fill his place.

On Saturday evening, March 27th, a surprise party was sprung on Mrs. Miss Dora Regan, by her many friends, who met at the home of Mrs. Pavitt, at 19 Salem Place, Malden.

Miss Regan was presented with a handsome traveling bag, for which she was very thankful. Old and new games took up the greater part of the evening, after which huge bricks of ice cream and cake were passed around.

Among those present were: Miss Regan, Miss Wilson, Miss Charbonneau, Miss Lockery, Miss Miss Twomey, Miss Lord, Miss Smith, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. DeVoe, Mrs. Meacham, Mr. Dunbar, Mr. Jordan, Mr. Hill, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Meacham, Mr. McCarthy, Mr. Peterson, Mr. Batters by, Mr. Ruekner, Mr. Chiff, Mr. Fritz, Mr. Rosin, Mr. O'Neill, Mr. Cryan, Bob White, "Dummy Burns," Mr. and Mrs. Pavitt, the host and hostess and their two children.

As Mrs. Mabel and Mr. Richard Wilson, sister and brother-in-law of Miss Gertrude Smith, are both in the hospital, Miss Smith, is staying with friends at 12 Montvale Avenue, Stoneham, Mass., care of J. Halpin. Will friends and those who wish to send news to the JOURNAL, please write to her there until further notice.

The Dorchester and Boston branch of the Camp Fire Girls is growing rapidly. New members, however are still wanted. Those interested can obtain more information by writing to Mrs. F. M. Clark, 21 Mellen Street, Dorchester.

LOS ANGELES.

Mr. Milton Miller has purchased a Dodge Bros. Touring Car, and is planning all kinds of excursions during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Saxton Gilmore have just been through a siege of measles. All three of the children had it, but instead of all three taking it at once, they took turns. They have all recovered now, and are back in school, and Mr. Gilmore has renewed his bi-weekly trips to Port Los Angeles with his fishing rod.

On the afternoon of February 25th, the friends of Mrs. U. M. Cool met at her home and gave a "Shower." The guests also brought the refreshments and did all the serving. The afternoon was very quickly and pleasantly spent. Mrs. Cool was pleased with the many pretty presents she received.

Mrs. Margaret Kent entertained Mr. and Mrs. David Brown and Mr. and Mrs. William Dudley at Tea, Sunday evening, March 7th.

Mrs. M. E. McDermid, of Vancouver, B. C., has been spending the winter in Los Angeles with Mrs. Margaret Kent.

Mrs. Tilley, of Tiburon, Cal., spent a month with Mrs. Morton Sonneborn.

On Tuesday, March 16th, Mrs. Tilley gave a luncheon at Bullock's Tea Room. Twenty-five ladies were present. The afternoon was spent playing "500." Miss Mary Peek captured the prize, a lovely necklace of beads. The weather man was most unkind to let it rain that day. Every one reported a lovely time.

Miss Annabelle Kent, of New Jersey, is wintering in South Pasadena. She is a guest at nearly all the socials and club meetings. On Saturday, the 20th, she entertained a few friends at luncheon at Blackstone's, then wound up the afternoon at the Kinema.

Mrs. L. W. Hodgman gave a luncheon at Bullock's, Tuesday, the 23d, in honor of Mrs. McDermid and Mrs. Tilley, and their hostesses, Mrs. Margaret Kent and Mrs. Morton Sonneborn.

Mrs. Gayfer, daughter of Mrs. Kent, met with a very painful accident recently. Her foot caught as she alighted from a trolley. Her ankle turned, and has been causing great pain. She is almost well at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dudley took dinner with Mr. H. C. Doane, at their home on Badlong Avenue recently. Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew Norton, of Montalvo, were also guests at dinner that night.

On Thursday, March 25th, there were two luncheons, one at the home of Miss Mary Peek and one at Bullock's with Mrs. W. H. Phelps as hostess. We lack particulars.

CARD AND THIMBLE CLUB NOTES.

Mrs. McDermid entertained the C. and T. Club at the home of Mrs. Morton Sonneborn on an afternoon at "500." Mrs. L. W. Hodgman and Mrs. Matilda Sonneborn won the prizes. A very delicious and substantial lunch was served. Mrs. Henri Briscoe was the guest of the club that afternoon.

The C. and T. Club met with Mrs. Matilda Sonneborn January 21st, and with Miss Mildred Angle on February 4th. Miss Angle had Miss Cawson of the Royal Baking Powder Co., to give a cooking demonstration. Miss Cawson was instructor of Domestic Science in the Oregon School for the Deaf at one time and is familiar with the sign language.

The club met with Mrs. Ernest Bingham at her home, 5404 Fourth Avenue, on February 27th. The afternoon was spent "plying the needle." Dainty refreshments were served at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. David Brown entertained the club at "500" on the afternoon of March 3d, and met with Mrs. Frank Burton at noon, March 17th. Mrs. Burton served a lovely luncheon. The table was decorated with green carnations, shamrocks, candies and place-cards. The salad, ice-cream and cake, were also decorated in green. Mrs. Cool captured the prize at "500."

Miss Alice Chenoweth entertains the club at her new home, 1747 Canyon Drive, Hollywood, on March 31st.

We regret very much to announce the resignation of Miss Mary Peek and her companion, Miss Mildred Angle, from the Card and Thimble Club. We hope Miss Peek's health will so improve that she will re-join us in the near future.

BRANCH NOTES.

Miss Elizabeth Taylor and her parents have just moved into their new colonial Bungalow on Sixth Street, Santa Monica. We do not know the number of the new house, but it is next door to their former home at 1048.

General C. C. Watts of Charleston, West Va., was recently the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Arnold Kiene. He stayed a whole week and promised to return in May and take Mrs. Kiene and the children cast to spend the summer visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dudley have purchased a home at 854 Fourth St., Santa Monica and expect to move soon. They will be at home to their friends about April 14.

FANWOOD.

Wednesday last was a gala day all around. The foremost event perhaps was anticipation of the twelve-day Easter Recess, which officially began the next day. The Daylight Saving Law received its share of commendation, for it made possible an hour's earlier start for home. Visitations were received from General Francis V. Greene, President, and Mr. Samuel R. Betts, First Vice-President, of the Institution; Professor and Mrs. Fushfeld of Gallaudet College, Washington, D. C.

Early in the morning, while Principal Gardner was endeavoring to concentrate upon the accumulation of work which had reached his desk over night, he was interrupted by a young lady of the Adrastran Society, who wished to condole with him because she had received authentic information that he was suffering with a severe cold, and as it happened to be the anniversary of the day of his birth, wished him to accept a small token made by herself, which would materially assist in relieving his ailment. The surprised Principal profusely thanked the young lady, and upon examining the contents of the package, discovered a beautifully hand-made, hemstitched, monogrammed linen handkerchief, with which he was much pleased. Intermittently, every fifteen minutes thereafter, another young lady appeared with the same tale of woe and a package, until twelve in all had been received. By the time the last one appeared the Principal felt very much relieved; but his day had only just begun. General Greene and Mr. Betts were announced. During their round of inspection of the Buildings, they were innocently lured into the Girls' Study Room, just as the setting up exercises were about to begin. At the conclusion of the same (the band playing "Hail to the Chief"), the Principal was summoned by the Officer of the Day, Nadine Lavond, to come to the center of the room. After a few appropriate remarks, he was presented with a gold "Ever-sharp" lead-pencil. Although completely taken by surprise, the Principal made a neat response and wished all a Happy Easter.

After dismissing the visitors and returning to his desk, the Principal found a congratulatory letter from Dr. Fox, the senior teacher, signed by all the teachers, and a miniature flower garden from the Art Department, drawn by the pupils. Still the flow of congratulations did not cease. In addition to many personal felicitations, the Cadet Officers trooped into the Office in a body and individually congratulated the Principal, who shook each by the hand.

Last week Cadet Sam Nadler, of "The Little Printer" staff, received a letter with parts of speech, which he wanted to give to the children, from Mr. Robinson a deaf, blind man:—

1. Three little words you often see, Are articles, a, an, and the.
2. A noun is a name of anything, A school or garden, hoop or swing.
3. Adjectives show the kind of noun, As great, small, pretty, white or brown.
4. Instead of nouns, the pronouns stand. Her head, his face, your arm, my hand.
5. Verbs tell us something to be done, To read, write, count, jump or run.
6. How things are done the adverbs tell, As slowly, quickly, all are well.
7. Conjunctions join the words together, As man and woman, wind or weather.
8. The preposition stands before, A noun, as in or through the door.
9. The interjection shows surprise, As oh! how pretty! oh! how wise!
10. The whole are called nine parts of speech, Which reading, writing teach.

Cadet Charles Morris' father recently captured a $75 bowling prize in Albany, while at the same time his uncle won a prize for the same sport in Springfield, Mass. Charles will learn bowling and try to defeat them both this summer.

William Stokeley, the pupils' chef, trains with the runners at four o'clock every day on the playground. Last Friday, Cadet Captain James McKernon tried to follow him for three miles, but soon gave up.

The smaller boys always enjoy Cadet Louis Cohen's after-supper stories in the study-hall. Louis likes very much to entertain them.

Through the generosity of a kind friend of the Institution, the entire Trades School has been equipped with electric lights.

Among the visitors last week was Mrs. George S. Porter, a teacher at the New Jersey School for the Deaf, Trenton.

Mrs. W. G. Jones is in a precarious condition at St. Luke's Hospital. She was taken there for a surgical operation, which was performed successfully on the 3d of April.

Stories of attacks made on American tars in Ireland are highly exaggerated, says the Lord Mayor of Cork. Fifty per cent of American sailors are Irish, he continues, and the trouble in ordinary times would not even be noticed.

NEW YORK.

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

It, spite of lowering skies and chill winds, so unlike the sunshine and warmth of the Easter, St. Ann's Church was crowded with worshippers and friends last Sunday afternoon, to observe the queen festival of the Christian year. They came from a radius of seventy-five miles, for this was one of the occasions when the deaf assemble in their Cathedral Church to rejoice with all Christendom in the festival of the resurrection of the Saviour and the promise and hope it holds for all mankind.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the venerable vicar, the Rev. Dr. Chamberlain, assisted by Rev. Mr. Kent. Dr. Chamberlain preached the sermon, taking for his text St. Luke 24:3—"He is not here, but is risen."

Under the leadership of Miss Alice Judge, the vested choir led in the responsive parts of the service and signed the hymns: "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," as the processional hymn, "Angels Roll the Rock Away," and "Bread of the World in Mercy Broken."

The Easter Decorations were arranged by the Altar Guild. Miss Virginia Gallaudet came on the day preceding to superintend their arrangement. Bermuda and calla lilies almost hid the altar cross. Some of the flowers were the gifts of friends in memory of relatives. Prof. Charles W. Van Tassel and his wife and Prof. Timothy F. Driscoll, were among those so remembered. On the panels on both sides of the Altar were the lettering "Christ is Risen from the Dead and Become the First Fruits of Them that Slept. Alleluia!" The flowers from the altar were later taken to the homes of the sick, who were unable to be present at the service. The lettering and tithing on the panels was the work of Mr. H. F. M. Pace, who at Christmas and Easter gives much time and thought towards adding this effective note in the decorations.

After the service the congregation lingered in the Guild House for several hours, exchanging greetings. There were many out-of-town visitors present, and all expressed themselves as enjoying the splendid and inspiring service.

With the big entertainment at the 22d Regiment Armory only about a week away, Chairman Frank Nimmo and his aides are holding frequent meetings, clearing up details and endeavoring to overlook nothing for the comfort and enjoyment of the big crowd that is sure to be on hand. A few changes are necessary in the Athletic program. The events that will be run off are: 100 yd. dash, one-mile run, and one-mile relay. A special event will be the Inter-Church Medley Relay Race for Church teams from the Chapel of the Intercession, St. Ann's Church, St. Catharine's Church, Washington Heights Congregation and Fort Washington Presbyterian Church. Two more Churches are to be heard from. The famous athletic club of the Firestone Tire Company, Akron, Ohio, is to send a team. Good-year will also be represented. The Silent Athletic Club of Philadelphia will have a large representation present. It was absolutely necessary to shorten the athletic program as thus one feature alone would take up two solid hours if not curtailed.

The demand for tickets is unprecedented. Over 2000 reserved seats have already been sold. Eight hundred special seats on the drill floor have been ordered. We urge our guests and friends to be on hand early. An efficient corps of ushers will be present to show patrons to seats.

The prizes will be on exhibition at the Guild House, Thursday, April 15th, when the Men's Club meets. Now everybody worth while will be there. The entire deaf population of New York City and vicinity will be assembled in the Armory, which is on the site of an apple orchard of thirty years ago, and while watching the manoeuvres of the cadets and the dashing of the athletes, they will be reminded of how in times of long ago they used to out-manoeuvre the farmer and beat him to the fence in 100, 220 and 440-yards sprints and dashes.

Any information about the athletic events, etc., can be had at the Guild House, 511 West 148th Street, or at the Armory, Tuesday evenings when the teams practice.

Miss Katie Ehrlich is going to Washington, D. C., on Saturday, April 10th, for a stay of ten days with her married sister, Esther, and their brother, William. It will be her first visit to Washington since Esther lived there for eighteen years. Esther and her husband have often begged her to pay them a visit, but this has been her first opportunity. Miss Ehrlich will take her "pal," Miss Elizabeth Maclair along with her, and they expect to have a wonderful time, seeing all the marvels of the Nation's Capital.

XAVIER ALLIED NOTES.

A blustering wind and fitful rain failed to mar attendance at Xavier Ephpheta Society's Easter Sunday meeting, when the sum total reached at least two hundred and thirty. Father Dalton's sermon was a happy recital of "The Resurrection," as proving our Lord's divinity. He declared the deaf by reason of their affliction should be drawn into bonds of closer sympathy, and endeavor to refrain from speaking or writing of one another things that were not true. Benediction followed.

After President Lonergan and Julius Kickers rigged up an incubator with the help of Ephpheta present, on re-entering the hall, Rev. Father was "held up" at the door by two wee miles of the fair sex—Marguerite and Catherine Lonergan. The latter addressed him in behalf of the donors of the Easter egg, as he called it, in expressing his thanks and assurance their kindness would be a lever to his efforts to do greater things for the deaf.

In Xavier upper Church, right after, where all assembled, a happy event took place, before the grand main altar, adorned with its myriad of lighted tapers set off with a beautiful collection of budding apple blossoms, some on the altar, and others on their natural branches planted in receptacles in the sanctuary on each side of the altar steps.

A charming setting for the nuptials in which were concerned Miss Susan Golden, a Fordham Alumna, and Mr. Anthony Pessutti, a hearing gentleman. Attended by two young acolytes, Father Dalton officiated. Miss Dagmar Hanson was bridesmaid; a brother of the groom best man. A reception followed in Brooklyn, where the couple will make their home.

By the by, Dan Cupid doesn't seem hurried over the H. C. L., or the vexed problems our legislative Solons are wrestling with at Albany. At least among the Xavier silent flock. Wednesday, of the current week Rev. Father ties the knot uniting Miss Mary Morris, a St. Joseph's girl, and Mr. A. Smith, late of Fanwood, who was baptized in the Catholic faith recently. On April 11th he will again officiate at the nuptials uniting Miss N. Norbett and Mr. A. Bing, both St. Joseph's graduates. Quite a week's record for Ephpheta's new pastor.

Among the attendants were: "Marty" Higgins, of Gallaudet College; Vice-President Steve Dundon, Bridgeport Division, N. F. S. D.; Charles Amlauer, St. Joseph's, Philadelphia; Austin Fogarty, Glen Cove, L. I.; Mr. and Mrs. McMahon, Newark, and Bro. McMahon, from the same place.

Speaking of the Mission to be given by Rev. Thomas Galvin, C.S.S.R., week May 9th, Father Dalton expressed the hope it would be the greatest ever given to the Catholic deaf of the country, and asked all present to aid in bringing that about by inviting their friends.

H. A. D. NOTE

The 3d and last installment of H. A. D. films has been ordered from Washington, D. C. Should they arrive on time, they will certainly be screened at the Movie Show at the Communal Center, 40 West 115th Street, this Sunday evening, April 11th. At any rate, there will be a good exhibition of educational and other films to take their place, if necessary.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Murray Campbell, at Fresno, Cal., on Tuesday, March 2d, a boy weighing eight and a quarter pounds. He will be named Douglas Murray. Everybody well and happy. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell return to Tucson, Arizona, about the 10th of April.

CONVENTION NOTES

This is the year, Detroit is the place, August 9th to 14th is the time.

No doubt you think we have been hibernating, but we wish to assure you that we have been very much alive, and though we have not been saying much of late, we have been "sawing wood" to beat the Kaiser, and as a result, things are looming big in the Convention horizon.

Precision has been the most beautiful and predominating trait of the Local Committee and the Detroit Local Branch during the winter months, and success has kept steady pace with their ceaseless efforts, until now we can claim a copper for the biggest and best convention of the deaf ever held.

We take special pride in announcing that, so far, the Local Committee and the Local Branch have been able to pay its own house-keeping expenses and raise $224.76 for the convention funds without appealing to the general public for a penny, and the enthusiasm goes merrily on.

So far, this has been a convention of the deaf, for the deaf, and by the deaf. Flint, Kalamazoo and Lansing are hot-beds of enthusiasm, where cheerful deeds are turned like magic into the coin of the realm, and they are giving Detroit a close race for distinction.

After much hard work and pains taking study, the Local Committee has at last mapped out a splendid social program, which has been approved by Dr. Cloud, and Mr. Stewart, Chairman of the Program Committee, and I take special pleasure in announcing it as follows:—

MONDAY, AUGUST 9th—Evening: Address of Welcome and Responses. Reception.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 10th—Morning, Business session; Afternoon, Business Session; Evening, Boat ride to Lake Erie.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 11th—Morning, Business session; Afternoon, Sight seeing and visits to Auto factories; Evening, Grand Ball.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 12th—Morning, Business session; Afternoon, Visit to Belle Island, Outdoor Recreation; Evening, Fraternity Meetings.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 13th—All-day picnic with track and field sports. Boat to Tashmoo Park, with stopover at Grosse Point. Will pass St. Clair Flats, the Venice of America, on the way.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 14th—Morning Business session; Afternoon, Business session, Adjournment sine die. Evening, Grand Banquet. Place and time of meetings, hotel headquarters, and other detailed information, will be announced later.

The Local Committee has reserved a spacious convention hall and committee rooms in the Hotel Statler, one of Detroit's newest and up-to-date hotels, which is conveniently located in the downtown district, facing Grand Circus Park.

Word has reached us that there are some apprehensions as to the ability to get rooms in Detroit, and that the cost of food, etc., may be prohibitive. But I wish to dispel all such apprehensions with the statement that Detroit is no higher in its prices than any other city of its size in the Union.

But it would be wise for all those contemplating attendance, to make their reservations as soon as possible, so the Local Committee may get a fair idea of the number intending to come, and have everything ready for them when they get here.

Mr. John G. T. Berry, 169 Galop Street, Mt. Clemens, Mich., is Chairman, and Mrs. Gertrude Strand Behrendt, 592 Magnolia Street, Detroit, Mich., is the Secretary of the Housing Committee. Step lively there with your application for reservations, but don't push.

Every Nadite should start a little convention fund of their own right now, so they can come to the biggest and best convention of them all.

Enthusiasm in Detroit never sleeps, it rolls right on through our dreams, and carries us forward in our wakeful hours with our slogan "We Will," ever in the foreground, and if the 1920 convention is not a howling success, it won't be because we haven't tried to make it so.

I will announce all specific information as soon as things are whipped into shape, through the press, so send in your inquiries, and watch the papers. Sincerely,

ROBERT V. JONES, Sec'y
374½ Louise Ave., H.P.I., Detroit, Mich.

It is the wish of the local committee that every visitor coming to the convention of the National Association of the Deaf should have convenient hotel accommodation; and the committee will strive in every way possible to secure it, so that every one will feel at home during the convention.

To enable the committee to do all this for you, you should send in your room reservation now or very soon.

Detroit has doubled in population since the last census, and made giant strides in industry and home building, but it has not kept up with the demand for new hostilities to take care of thousands that daily visit the city.

Thousands upon thousands of tourists and travelers flock to this city every year during the so-called convention months of June, July, and August, taxing the hotels to their full capacity, and many have been unfortunately been disappointed and forced to accept accommodations far from their liking. The local committee has, however, been assured by the Detroit Hotel Association that housing conditions will be improved this coming summer, but this does not mean that you may drop in in the morning of the opening of the convention without any reservation and expect a room without any trouble.

Detroit is not only noted as a convention city but as a resort also. The beautiful Detroit River and lakes nearby attract thousands who make the local hotels their homes during the summer.

No disappointment need be felt over this fact, but you should be wise and send in your reservation now, if you want to be sure of your room during the convention.

Hotel Statler has been selected as headquarters for the convention for its homelike conveniences and reasonableness of rates which are not equalled by any other hotel in the city. There are also many advantages for guests staying at the hotel headquarters.

When the room allows two or more persons, you may divide with your friends; for instance take $10 room; you may get up a party of four (including yourself each to pay $2.50 a day or $15 for the week; or for a $8 room, you may pay $2 each or $12 for the week.

If you don't care to stop at the headquarters write the secretary of the housing committee, and we will secure for you cheaper rate rooms at some other hotel, but we cannot guarantee the same conditions as will be found at the headquarters. A deposit of twenty per cent of the rate for the week should accompany your reservation for the room.

For further information write the secretary of the housing committee: Mrs. Gertrude S. Behrendt, 592 Magnolia Street, Detroit, Michigan. Inclose stamp for reply.

We are sending out reservation cards with rates to all whom we think may be interested. If you do not get ones drop us a card for it, as we may not have your correct address.

GERTRUDE S. BEHRENDT,
Secretary Housing Com.

CHICAGO.

The annual banquet of the graduates and ex-students of Gallaudet College will be held in the Parish Hall of All Angels' Church for the Deaf, on Friday evening, April 16th, 1920. The Chairman, Mr. R. L. H. Long, wants them to notify him of their intention to be present, by mail or telegraph, as early as possible. A good time is assured. Mr. Long's address is 4340 Lexington Street, Chicago.

Miss Detroit has been blowing her trumpet sweetly and melodiously for three years without any intermission, solely for the purpose of boosting the convention. It is most likely that she will be able to entertain over a thousand happy guests for six days royally and gloriously. I have made inquiries as to who are going to accept her cordial invitation, and quite a number of friends have intimated to me that they would be greatly delighted to hug and kiss Miss Detroit. I hope to have a chance, because I am an old but jolly bachelor. Hearty congratulations.

"He that hath the brains to think, let him think," is a good motto. Mrs. Philip J. Hasenstab seems to be in great demand for lectures at churches or clubs. On Friday evening, March 9th, she entertained the girls with a very interesting talk on "Friendship and Fellowship," at the Silent Athletic Club House. Rousing cheers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Swangren, formerly of Portland, Oregon, and later of Rockford, Illinois, have moved to Chicago, and expect to settle down permanently.

Wilbert P. Souder, who has been a clerk in the Census Bureau Department at Washington for some years, was sent to Chicago last January, to assist in filing up or arranging the new Census counts.

J. Frederick Meagher is suffering seriously from a facial paralysis at his home. It is thought that the wrestler, who defeated him at Gary, Ind., two weeks ago, threw him down on the mat too violently.

Messrs. Meagher and Smith, who were getting ready to start for Birmingham, Alabama, recently, had to abandon their trip on account of the injury. But it is rumored that Mr. Smith has decided to go alone. We all hope for Frederick's recovery.

The lecture which the writer delivered before the members of the Pas-a-Pas Club and friends, on Saturday night, seemed to have given a clear idea of the shocking and pitiable conditions of Mexico to the audience.

A doctor, who had travelled through Mexico for eight months, told an audience at La Salle Hotel, in the course of his lecture, that there were five thousand homeless and foodless children, aged four to fourteen years, in Mexico City, wandering about the streets, seeking food in garbage cans, and sleeping in alleys and bushes, and that sixty-eight of them were officially reported dead in one day. No Red Cross nurses are allowed to go over there on account of bandits, who are still infesting many places. A deaf friend suggests that the only way to get rid of the bandits is to drop bombs on them from an airplane.

After my lecture was over, Rev. Mr. Hasenstab added a few interesting facts about Mexico.

The Chairman, Mr. Struck, announced a debate on the question: "Shall the United States Government intervene in Mexico for the purpose of establishing law and order?" It will be held May 22d. Messrs. Hemstreet and Brasher will uphold the Affirmative, and Rev. Mr. Hasenstab and Mr. Struck the Negative side.

April 3 1920—The friends and schoolmates of Mr. William F. Murphy, who was a pupil of the school in the seventies and eighties, will be surprised to learn that he has severed his connection with the Arkansas school. While a pupil of the school here, he learned the shoe-making trade, under the teaching of the late P. P. Pratt. Soon after graduating he was appointed foreman of the Arkansas school shoeshop, and has held the place since under the many changes of superintendents that school has experienced during the last thirty-four years. Under all he gave perfect satisfaction and giving many an Arkansas boy an opportunity to make a living for himself after leaving school.

Frugal and industrious, he managed to build a home for himself and family, for he raised one after getting down there, from the small salary the State paid for his labor.

But Arkansas like many other States pays its instructors salaries below what they should be, and when the war came and prices on everything went leaping way up, without a corresponding rise in the pay of teachers, it became difficult for the latter to make both ends meet. And it hit Mr. Murphy, and forced him to go into business for himself, where he is more certain to receive higher remuneration and keep the wolf from the door. He has sold his home, and will move out of Little Rock to some other point in the State and set up a shop of his own.

Columbus will no longer enjoy the cheapest street carfare in the country, which she has far many years past three cents, or eight tickets for twenty-five cents. Hereafter, under an ordinance passed some time ago and going into effect this morning, patrons will have to plunk down a nickel and a copper for a ride, or a quarter for five tickets. No extra charge for one transfer. This will be in force for two years. For the next four years five cents cash and six tickets for twenty-five cents. Owl cars after midnight ten cents.

The Rev. Rittenhouse of the First Baptist Church addressed the teachers of the School at their monthly meeting, Thursday afternoon. He had as his subject Making American Citizens. He spoke of the ideals of the French, English and the United States, each in itself was endeavoring to make good citizens of its people, but the best ideal for good citizenship, the whole world, is found in the teachings of that lowly man, Christ, and the nation that follows them will have good citizens. The address was very interesting, and the speaker was heartily applauded at its close.

The first game of baseball of the season was played on the institution grounds, Thursday afternoon, between two picked nines of the Athletic Club of the School. The weather was ideal for the game and most of the pupils witnessed it.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker entertained the home people with a talk last Sunday. Mrs. George Clum and Mr. and Mrs. Robbins were there too, from the Ladies' Aid Society, to ascertain what was needed for the rooms under care of the Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman are very much in need of help. The former of a man to assist in the spring work, and Mrs. Chapman to help in the general housework. It is impossible to get country people. The young people are all flocking to the city, because of attractions big pay, and shorter hours of work. The Home management will pay good wages to a competent man and woman, who may apply for work there.

Miss Maud Hedrick assumed the teaching of her class Monday. Since last September, Mrs. Spencer has had charge of it, owing to the former's poor health.

Miss Ethel Zell returned from Akron Monday morning, and reports having a big time while there. She has been entertaining friends of what she saw during her visit.

Uncle Sam even if slow manages to come around in the end. Yesterday we received our missing JOURNAL of March 4th. Better late than never.

On Sunday afternoon, March 21st, Mrs. Annette C. Mills, founder and Principal of the School for the Deaf at Chefoo, China, who is visiting America at present to obtain a brief rest from her arduous work, visited All Souls' Church for the Deaf by invitation, and addressed the Bible Class after the service in church. She showed that the object of her visit here is twofold, to gain rest and to talk in the interest of her school. As a result, she may take back with her to China, when she returns, which may be in April, a couple of scholarships at $60 a year.

The annual election of officers of the Gallaudet Club was held at the Adelphi Hotel, on Saturday evening, March 27th, and resulted as follows: President, George T. Sanders; Vice-President, William K. Clayton; Secretary-Treasurer, Harry E. Stevens. The next meeting of the Club will be held at Mr. Joseph V. Donohue's home in June.

Mr. Guy F. Solleek, of New York City, was a visitor at All Souls', on Sunday, March 28th last.

The Beth Israel Association for the Deaf had a social meeting on March 28th. There was no meeting on Easter Sunday on account of the Passover holiday, but a business meeting will be held on April 11th.

Mr. Robert Love, a cousin of Mr. James L. Patterson, was one of the killed at the accident at the grade crossing, Sixty-third and Eastwick Avenues, on Saturday morning, 27th of March, when a motor truck with more than a score of persons on its way to the Atlantic Refinery Company's plant was struck by a Reading train on the Hog Island Line. He was forty years of age, and leaves a wife and several children.

Mr. D. Ellis Lit is camping at Valley Ranch, New Mexico, which is about thirty miles from Santa Fe. He has been away since some time in February, taking a winter vacation.

Mrs. C. O. Dantzer is visiting her former home at Evansville—not at Indianapolis, as we reported in a previous letter.

Among the visitors to All Souls' Church for the Deaf on Thursday, March 25th, was Margaret Hauberg, a teacher in the Louisiana School for the Deaf. She had just returned from a visit to her aged mother in Norway, and stopped off here on her way South to resume teaching on the opening of school in April.

Mrs. Jennie Dunner has announced the engagement of her daughter, Hettie Bell, to Mr. Donald Fleener, of Chester Heights, Pa.

Lay-reader Reider read service at St. Paul's Parish House in Chester, Pa., on Palm Sunday.

Remember the moving picture show at All Souls' Parish Hall, on Saturday evening, April 10th. It is for the benefit of the Rectory Fund. Admission will be only fifteen cents.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. James T. Young, nee Stevenson, is seriously ill at present, and has been a sufferer for a long time.

Recently Elmer Mock, a night worker, had a thrilling experience with two bandits, on his way home from work in the early morning hours. The robbers evidently had knowledge that he was carrying his pay envelope, but Mr. Mock was also on his guard and noticed them following him, and when they attacked him, he put up a stiff fight and not only saved his money but knocked the wind out of both attackers for the time being. He is being congratulated by his friends for the knock-out he administered the robbers, while he himself suffered little damage.

AKRON, O.

On March 28, the local organ of the National Association of the Deaf, Tom J. Blake, called a meeting of the deaf of Akron in Goodyear Gymnasium, for the purpose of putting life into the local branch of the association and to elect new officers for the ensuing year, which had been deferred until now. The meeting was a well-attended and harmonious one. Mr. Blake presided as chairman, and after stating the ideals and objects of the National Association of the Deaf, called for an election of officers.

Mr. A. J. Sullivan, of Louisiana, who has been a teacher of the deaf for over twenty years, was elected president; and Mr. Paul R. Wys, of Kansas, was elected secretary; and Mr. James Trainor, of Boston, Massachusetts, was given the job of treasurer. The local branch is fortunate in getting such capable and progressive hustlers to run their organization. They all have the ability to do things, are good mixers, the kind that produces results. The Akron Branch of the N. A. D. is sure to make giant strides under their guidance.

Tom J. Blake, the organizer here, with the help of Mr. Chas. Kemp and W. F. Durian, old war horses of the N. A. D., had already secured sixty-seven new members, and expects to have about one hundred and fifty before the opening of the convention at Detroit. A month ago a movie show for the benefit of the local branch was given in Goodyear Gymnasium. N. A. D. films were shown, besides the story of a tire, a Goodyear film. The show was well patronized and a nice nest egg of sixty-five dollars is salted away in the local treasury. Miss Cloa Lamson, Second Vice-President of the National Association of the Deaf, was present by invitation, and gave an interesting and helpful address on the aims and objects of the Association.

Akron has made a good start to boost the N. A. D., and if Akron does not make as creditable a showing as any other city at the Detroit convention, it won't be the fault of the men in charge here.

Mr. Blake is working hard to do all he can to help the association, but, as usual, has the anvil chorus of knockers and mossbacks who are to be found everywhere, to contend with. Such is generally the case in any undertaking pertaining to the advancement and welfare of the deaf, and at times is hard to understand how educated people can work to thwart the improvement of their class, when they have gained all they have through the unselfish and patient work of men and women who have passed away. "They shall not sleep."

It is the intention of the local branch to hold a monster social here in Akron, before the Detroit Convention, to raise a sum worthy of Akron, to help the Endowment and Del' Epee funds of the National Association of the Deaf.

Watch Akron! Mr. Chas Kemp, who hails from New York State, was recently promoted to the position of pay-roll auditor here at Goodyear. Chas is making good here in Akron, and takes a prominent part in all the activities pertaining to the local colony of the deaf.

The Akron Division No. 55, of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf, held their Third Annual Banquet on March 27. Two hundred and one were present, and it was one of the most gala affairs ever held in Fraternal circles here.

Grand President H. C. Anderson was the guest of honor. He made a two days' visit here, and was entertained at Goodyear and Firestone by the deaf in a royal manner.
